Dr. Gudni Gudnason from Iceland is the founder of the Modern Mystery School and after teaching Metaphysics for 34 years his school is now in 39 countries. He has studied with sacred and orders all over the world and with some amazing teachers who handed down to him great secrets of life and death. In his quest for knowledge he ventured to the deepest jungles of the Congo, highest mountains of the Himalayas above 7000 meters, the incredible caves of Transylvania that go deep into the center of the Earth, mysterious illusive Temples of India with their incredible masters of true magick and in the secrets orders of Europe that taught the keys to abundance and joy and where ancient knowledge was kept hidden from the masses. In all of these places he was accepted as a student but was taught that these were secret teachings but now he is sharing this knowledge with all who want to learn, as this is the time of no more secrets. His ability to harness the power of the mind is notorious and he has stunned the spiritual community with his in depth teachings. The power tools that he hands down have been tried and tested through centuries of lineage and they simply work and that is why his school is growing all over the world. Grand Master Mantak Chia from Thailand is a world famous Daoist master who has stunned the world with his deep insight into human design and been able to translate the complicated machine called human body and created a system that is easy to use and comprehend. His techniques are used by millions all over the world and he has authored hundreds of books and DVD's. When Buddhism came to China, shamans were persecuted, like witches in the west, so they became Taoists, rivals to the Buddhists, and continued their practices in secret, using only internal energy, internal alchemy, without the use of accessories to identify themselves. The saying goes "you cannot tell a sage by his clothes." They were also known as magicians, wizards and sorcerers. Yes, Taoism is magick and one of the greatest magicians of them all is Grand Master Mantak Chia. (www.universal-tao.com)

Golden Pyramid of Peace mini version at Tao Garden

The Golden Pyramid of Peace is a glorious 30ft sq structure, representing universal peace and the beauty found in all people. It serves as a unifying point for world leaders and awakens people to the message of peace. The aim is to be supportive of the positive changes already taking place on the planet today and to encourage new eco-friendly technology, more corporate social responsibility, and increasing awareness of the value of the holistic approach to living. This pyramid was built from a divine vision set to represent a great structure to be known for our modern time.

Both masters will flow as much knowledge to the students as they are ready to receive & go with the flow of the group.

These are the times of NO MORE SECRETS and it is the will and wish of both masters that their students learn as much as possible.
